Woman Who Takes Middle Course in Dress Is Generally Appropriately and Attractively Dressed-Explanation of "Middle Course" - Costs Little to be Cheerful - Forget Your Grouch-Do Not Ignore Courtesies-Happiness and Cheerfulness Contagious -Three Recipes.

"It is just second nature to every and as stylish as we possibly can, but, on the other hand, if we have any common sense we don't want to adopt every strange and weird style just because Paris says it is the smartest thing out,

"The woman who keeps to the mid dle course is the woman, generally speaking, who is appropriately and attractively dressed.

Now let me tell you what I mean by the middle course, for instance, in regard to skirts. The new skirts which the most fashionable dressmakers and tailors are making this seaare wide just where they ought not to be and narrow in the most inconvenient and impractical of places They are wide at the hips, and many of them laid in folds at the waistline, while down toward the feet they actually measure no more than a yard, and sometimes less.

"I feel that for the average busy, sees one she likes—it is a most foolish thing to have her skirt made so extremely narrow at the foot. the other hand, I think it is equally unwise for her to wear a skirt, say, three and a half to four yards around If she does the latat the bottom. ter she practically labels herself a back number.

"Now the safe and sane middle course for her to adopt, and one that so enthusiastically believe in, is to make her skirt with some fullness at the waist-line and around the hips and then to have it measure from one and one-half to two and one-half yards around the bottom. In this way her new skirt will carry out in a general way the line of fashion and yet will not be the extreme freak style, nor will it be uncomfortable. Now do you see what I mean about the middle course?"

When Mixed with Sulphur It Brings Back Its Lustre And Abundance.

Gray hair, however handsome, deotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applica-tions of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Eiher prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Agents, A. R. McIntyre.

GOD'S TEMPLES

Ye Filled With the Spirit."

The Unregenerate - Their Privileges "If the Spirit of God Dwell In You." Greater Privileges-Greater Responsibilities-Greater Honors and Glories. Saved to Human Perfection-Saved to Spirit Perfection-Earthly Glory. Heavenly Glory.

Providence, R. I. Jan. 11.-Pasto Russell preached here today. His text was, "If any man defile the temple of God. him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy. which temple ye are.''-I Corin thians 3.17. The Astor de clared that this Scripture could not be applied indiscriminately to all men. Only the Church are the Temple of God in the sense the Apostle here mentions; for only such as have been regenerated, or begotten of the Holy Spirit, are sons of God. These have received a new life, and are Scripturally described as "New Creatures in Christ." have entered into a covenant with God through the merit of Jesus, who imputes His righteousness to them, justifying them freely from their unintentional imperfections and weak nesses.

Then the Pastor pointed out the distinction between these spirit-begotten New Creatures and the remainder of mankind, bowever just and well-in tentioned. He showed that ordinarily we do not speak of humanity apart from their bodies; for, cut off from the body, they would be dead. We speak of such separation as dissolution. As the union of life (vitality) with organism (body) forms the soul, or senthe soul to cease. Death would be the end of humanity, had not God provided for the redemption of the race, and its restitution by resurrection. Restitution will be merely a bringing back -human, or earthly, being.

Next the speaker showed that any thing done, either deliberately or care lessly, to injure God's workmanship would be sin. There is a Divine Law to the effect that whoever sins shall suffer. Whoever defiles his body, elther by impure thoughts, angry thoughts, malicious thoughts, or by misusing it contrary to Divine arrangement, or by drinking or by gluttony, is defiling the temple of his own soulthe work of God.

Every vile thought or act, every pandering to appetite, is sure to bring depravity of body or mind or both; and depravity, he claimed, is death at work. Unless such depravity be overcome through Christ, the end will be everlasting death, as is written, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die."

The same principle, said the Pastor, applies to all who do evil to others, elther by poisoning their minds or their morals, or by injuring their physical systems. Such do violence to God's work, and degrade their own manhood. The operation of Divine Law will surely bring punishments, which, unbeeded, will ultimately bring death-"everlasting destruction."

We may warn every man along the broad Biblical line, "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall be also reap," continued the speaker. Whoever sows to the flesh-to sin, selfishness, meanness-to the fallen propensities-anger. malice, envy, hatred, strife, evil speaking, etc.-will be sure to reap correspondingly bitter experiences. This way, persisted in, will finally bring him to the Second Death.

God's Temple the Church.

The Pastor then briefly reviewed Israel's wilderness experiences. When God entered into covenant relationship with the Israelites, He manifested Himself by the Shekinah Glory, which shope out from between the Cherubim covering the Mercy Seat in the Tabernacle. The Israelites drew near to God through His appointed servants, Anron and his sons, who had access to God's presence. The Tabernacle was therefore the temple of God, but it was merely a tent. After the dedication of Solomon's Temple, God appeared there instead, and manifested His presence in the same manner. Then the Pastor explained fully that the Church is God's antitypical Temple; but that, as St. Peter points out, it is not yet constructed as a Temple. Each consecrated child of God, begotten of the Holy Spirit, is a living stone in preparation for a place in that glorious Temple, soon to be constructed. These living stones are God's workmanship. He works in them by the Spirit of Truth; and by His providences He shapes them, polishes them, develops their characters, and makes them ready for the coming building.

The Pastor believes St. Paul's though in the text to be that wherever God may dwell is necessarily hely-Hitemple or His tabernacle; and that any wilful or intentional sin, depraying that temple or tabernacle, would be an offense against God. If Christians who have received the begetting of the Holy Spirit could but comprehend this lesson, it would have a powerfuinfluence man their lives!
